

Anchor Adds to RPET Line with Hinged 3-Compartment

(St. Louis, MO) October 27, 2014. Anchor Packaging, Inc. announces the addition of the new three-compartment 9″ to the Gourmet Classics® line of hinged RPET Containers. Perfect for pre-packaged salads with the protein and toppings in their own sections, this new package keeps the food looking fresh and appealing while segregating flavors until your customer is ready to eat. The compartments let you eliminate the cost of pouches or portion cups to segregate food items while reducing your carbon footprint.

The new 9″ 3-compartment joins the 1-compartment 6″, 7.5″, and 9″ deep and shallow packages from 14 to 40 ounces, sized perfectly for small and larger portion sizes. The one-piece, hinged black bottom containers drive impulse sales with their clear RPET lid. The unique cold temperature anti-fog technology in the lid maintains maximum visibility while on display. The elimination of condensation while in the refrigerated case gives the food that “just made” appearance, even when packed at a central kitchen. The leak-resistant lid eliminates messy spills and keeps the operation running smoothly with an audible quick-snap closure.

The consumer-friendly, tear-away lid is easily removed for eating on the go, at work or home. The lid fits neatly out of the way under the black base, interlocking in place for optional use later. The one-piece bowl and hinged lid simplify ordering, inventory and handling. Packages are made with a minimum of 10% FDA approved post-consumer RPET (#1) and remain eligible for recycling after use.

The affordable Gourmet Classics hinged containers are the perfect solution for grab n go foodservice!
